KUHIO GOES TO WAIANAE

Will Open the Oahu Campaign This Evening.

Prince Kuhio will open the campaign of the Republican party on this island by making an address tonight at Waianae. This was decided on at a meeting last evening of the Fifth District executive committee.

The prince, together with the senatorial nominees, Messrs. Dowsett, Lane and Bishop, as well as other party workers, will leave this afternoon on the 3:15 train for Waianae. Efforts to telephone there last night were futile, and the district committee depends largely upon the notice of the meeting reaching the Waianae people in this morning's paper.

A schedule of meeting is being arranged for next week, it being planned to have a meeting in each precinct every night, winding up with a grand rally at Aala Park on Saturday evening, October 1.

There was some doubt before the meeting began as to whether it was to be an executive or open session. After the reporters had gone to some trouble to procure a table and haul it into the range of conversation, some one of the committee drewled out:

"Is this to be an executive or social session?"

The newspapermen took the hint and vanished, much to the amusement of the politicians.

Prince Kuhio visited the meeting during the evening and assisted in arranging the details of the meetings to be held in the Fifth District next week.

PREPARING FOR ELECTION DAY

Registrar of Elections Buckland is preparing for the coming election by having the blank ballots in readiness.

The records, books and all other blanks will be ready in a short time.

Candidates on the other islands have to file their nominations by Monday, October 10. Nominations for Oahu can be filed up to Saturday, October 29. Each nomination must be accompanied by a fee of $25. About $3000 will accrue from these fees, which will go toward the expenses of conducting the election.

All candidates for the lower house must be not less than 25 years of age and have resided in the islands for three years. Senatorial candidates must be not less than 30 years of age.

CHINESE NOT CHANGING FAITH

W. Y. Kwai Fong, secretary of the Chinese Republican Club, denies the report in an evening paper that the members of his club were seeking favors from the Democrats.

"I want to deny the whole story," said Mr. Kwai Fong. "The Chinese Republican Club do not intend anything of this kind. Mr. Crawford may have gone to the Democrats on his own personal account, but not in the name of our club. Whatever may have been done in this way has no bearing on the club itself."

"The Chinese Republican Club will heartily support the Republican ticket and no other."

DEMOCRATS MYSTERIOUS

The Democrats held a caucus last evening at Waverley hall but were very mysterious afterwards as to what transpired. This was due to the fact that a resolution calling for secrecy was presented and passed.

Moonlight Drill Last Night.

The National Guard had a moonlight drill last night at Aala Park. The men looked well in their new khaki uniforms.

THE WEDDING LAST NIGHT

Miss Mapuena Smith and Emil Peters Married.

One of the most beautiful weddings that Honolulu has lately seen was the simple but impressive ceremony that united the lives of Emil C. Peters and Miss Mapuena Smith last night. St. Andrew's Cathedral was well filled by friends of the happy couple when the hour of half past eight arrived. The decorations were very simple, being confined to the altar which was tastefully trimmed with white flowers.

Mr. Gerard Barton presided at the organ and promptly at half past eight the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin pealed forth. At the same time the bridal procession appeared at the door of the cathedral. It was preceded by the crucifer of St. An-draws who was followed by the choir and the girls of St. Andrew's Priory. The bride was on her father's arm and was unattended. She wore a beautiful gown of white point d'esprit over white satin. A diamond pendant, the gift of the groom, hung at her throat. She wore a long veil of white tulle. Miss Smith carried herself with an easy grace and dignity that brought the remark from many, "What an ideal bride!"

At the chancel steps the bride was met by the groom and the officiating clergyman, Rev. Mr. Simpson of St. Andrew's. The regular Episcopal ring service was used, the bride being given away by her father. The audience remained standing during the service. While the contracting parties and witnesses retired to the vestry room to sign the marriage register the choir sang, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The party retired from the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. A large crowd gathered outside to shower the couple with rice but they were in their carriage and away before much could be thrown.

Mr. Peters is Deputy Attorney General and Mrs. Peters is the daughter of Henry Smith, Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court. Mr. and Mrs. Peters leave on the Mongolia for an extended tour in the States. An elaborate post supper was given in their honor Monday evening.
